

153 word bio:

DeeAnn Bragaw, MA PMin

DeeAnn Bragaw serves as Director of Women's Ministries for the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists. In addition to being a fervent champion of prayer, DeeAnn's passion is connecting women to Jesus, each other, and their communities and she thrives on creating space and resources for those connections to flourish.

DeeAnn earned her undergraduate degree in Education from Union Adventist University, and her master's degree in Pastoral Ministry from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. She initially served as an educator before transitioning in Women's Ministries. DeeAnn created leadership resources and served as a Women's Ministries leadership trainer for a national Christian publisher, later serving as Director of Women's Ministries and Prayer Ministries for the Rocky Mountain Conference of Seventh-day Adventists before coming to the North American Division office.

A Colorado native, DeeAnn loves to be outside hiking, biking, paddle boarding, snowshoeing, and camping with her husband, Paul, and their family.

72 word bio:

DeeAnn Bragaw, MA, PMin

DeeAnn Bragaw serves as Director of Women's Ministries for the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists. In addition to being a fervent champion of prayer, DeeAnn's passion is connecting women to Jesus, each other, and their communities and she thrives on creating space and resources for those connections to flourish. A Colorado native, DeeAnn loves to be outside hiking, biking, paddle boarding, snowshoeing, and camping with her husband, Paul, and their family.